DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1- 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Janes et al.

Janes et al discloses the use of a composite fiber material construction for acoustical musical instrument for use with soundboard of the body of bowed stringed instruments consisting of a core plate and a fiber laminate which is provided in the region of the outer surfaces of the core plate(column 5, lines 1-15). Janes also discloses the use of long fibers which are embedded in a matrix. The device as taught by Janes also discloses at least one recess surrounded by material regions of the core plate within the are defined by the outline of the soundboard, the total volume of the recesses amounting to at most to 80% (see figure 2)

Regarding claims 2-5 Janes discloses that one recess in the core plate takes up the entire thickness of the core plate (see figure 3). Janes also discloses that at least one recess (26) occupies only a part of the thickness of the core plate which has individual layers. In column 6, lines 15-25 Janes discloses a means for eliminating layers of the soundboard and layers that are multi-directional (column 5, lines 15-17).

Art Unit: 2837

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Haines, Besnainou et al, and Decker disclose the use of stringed musical instruments made from composite materials.
